The administrator of the chapter 11 plan (the "Plan Administrator") of the above-captioned reorganized debtors (collectively, the "Debtors," as applicable, and after the effective date of their plan of reorganization, the "Reorganized Debtors"), files this Tenth Omnibus Objection Seeking to Reclassify Certain Claims (Improperly Classified Claims) (this "Objection"). In support of this Objection, the Plan Administrator respectfully represents as follows:

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this case and this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(B). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409(a).

2. The predicates for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 502(b) and 507(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (“Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and Rule 3007-1 of the Bankruptcy Local Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Local Rules”).

Relief Requested

3. The Plan Administrator respectfully requests entry of an order, substantially in the form filed herewith (the “Proposed Order”), reclassifying each claim identified on Schedule 1 to the Proposed Order because each such claim, as asserted, was improperly classified.

General Background

4. On August 3, 2020 and August 4, 2020, (the “Petition Dates”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

5. On June 25, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Findings of Facts, Conclusions of Law, and Order Confirming Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 1751] (the “Confirmation Order”) confirming, as modified therein, the Eighth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and its Affiliated Debtors (the “Plan”).

6. On August 27, 2021, the effective date of the Plan occurred (the “Effective Date”) and the Debtors filed the Notice of (I) Entry of Order Confirming Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Fieldwood Energy LLC and its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Occurrence of Effective Date [Docket No. 2016].

The Claims Reconciliation Process

7. On October 13, 2020, the Debtors filed their Statements of Financial Affairs and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities [Docket Nos. 430-454].

8. On October 14, 2020, the Court entered the Order (I) Establishing Deadline to File Proofs of Claim and (II) Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 466] (the “Bar Date Order”), establishing certain dates and deadlines (each a “Bar Date”) for filing proofs of claims in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the “Proofs of Claims”). The Bar Date Order established: (a) November 25, 2020, as the Bar Date for all non-governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim, and (b) February 1, 2021, as the Bar Date for all governmental entities to file Proofs of Claim.

9. On the Effective Date, David Dunn of Province, Inc. was appointed to serve as the Plan Administrator pursuant to the Plan.

10. On September 28, 2021 the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Approving Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures and Filing of Omnibus Claims Objections [Docket No. 2068] (the “Omnibus Objection Procedures Order,” and the procedures attached thereto as Exhibit 1, the “Omnibus Objection Procedures”). The Omnibus Objection Procedures specify certain grounds as bases for omnibus objections, in addition to those grounds expressly set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d), including that such claims “are incorrectly or improperly classified.”

11. Since the entry of the Omnibus Objection Procedures Order, the Plan Administrator has filed nine omnibus claims objections, seeking to disallow or expunge claims filed against the Debtors on various bases specified in the Omnibus Objection Procedures and/or the Bankruptcy Rules. (See Docket Nos. 2076, 2077, 2078, 2079, 2080, 2259, 2318, 2319.)

12. The Plan Administrator and its advisors have worked diligently to review these Proofs of Claim, including supporting documentation filed contemporaneously with such Proofs of Claim. The Plan Administrator has identified numerous claims that were asserted with incorrect or improper classification, which are the subject of this Objection, and believes that the Improperly Classified Claims described in this Objection should be reclassified as general unsecured claims.

13. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is the Declaration of Clayton Gring in Support of the Tenth Omnibus Objection Seeking to Reclassify Certain Claims (Improperly Classified Claims) (the “Declaration”).

Basis for Relief

14. A filed proof of claim is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest objects. 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). A properly executed and filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the claim under section 502(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. FED. R. BANKR. P. 3001(f).

15. To receive the benefit of prima facie validity, however, a proof of claim must assert factual allegations that would entitle the claimant to a recovery. In re Heritage Org., LLC, 04-35574 (BJH), 206 WL 6508477, at *8 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Jan. 27, 2006). Additionally, a claimant’s proof of claim is entitled to the presumption of prima facie validity under Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) only until an objecting party refutes at least one of the allegations that is essential to the claim’s legal sufficiency. In re Starnes, 231 B.R. 903, 912 (N.D. Tex. 1998). Once an allegation is refuted, “the burden shifts to the claimant to prove by a preponderance of the evidence.” In re Congress, LLC, 529 B.R. 213, 219 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2015); see also Cavu/Rock Props. Project I, LLC v. Gold Star Constr., Inc. (In re Cavu/Rock Props. Project I, LLC), 516 B.R. 414, 422 (Bankr. W.D.

Tex. 2014). “The ultimate burden of proof always lies with the claimant.” In re Armstrong, 347 B.R. 581, 583 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2006).

16. An objection to a proof of claim must be made in writing, and the claimant must be provided with not less than thirty days’ notice of the hearing to be held in respect of such objection. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 3007(a). Objections to multiple claims may be joined in an omnibus objection on certain grounds set forth in the Bankruptcy Rules. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 3007(d). In addition to such grounds specified in the Bankruptcy Rules, this Court’s Omnibus Objection Procedures Order provides certain additional grounds as bases for omnibus objections, including that such claims “are incorrectly or improperly classified.” See Omnibus Objection Procedures at ¶ 2(a).

17. As set forth in the Declaration, each of the Proofs of Claim identified in Schedule 1 to the Proposed Order, (each an “Improperly Classified Claim,” and collectively, the “Improperly Classified Claims”) erroneously asserted entitlement to priority or administrative status under sections 503 and 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, the column titled Reason for Reclassification in Schedule 1 to the Proposed Order notes certain facts relevant to the proposed reclassification, including that such claim was either: (a) asserted by a third-party vendor as a priority wage claim when the Claimant was not employed by a Debtor; (b) asserted with administrative expense status pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code when—in fact—the applicable delivery of goods to the Debtors did not take place within twenty days prior to the Petition Date; (c) asserted with administrative expense status pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code when—in fact—the Claim is on account of services provided; or (d) incorrectly asserted with priority status pursuant to section 507(a). For such reasons, as specified with respect to each Improperly Classified Claim listed in Schedule 1 to the Proposed Order, the Improperly Classified Claims should be reclassified, either in their entirety or in part (as specified in Schedule 1), as general unsecured claims. Absent the reclassification of the Improperly Classified Claims, the holders of such claims could receive recoveries that they are not entitled to receive.

18. Accordingly, the Plan Administrator respectfully requests that the Court reclassify each Improperly Classified Claim as specified in Schedule 1 to the Proposed Order.

Reservation of Rights

19. For the avoidance of doubt, by this Objection, the Plan Administrator solely disputes the asserted classifications of the Improperly Classified Claim. The Plan Administrator reserves its rights to object to such Improperly Classified Claim on any other grounds, including with respect to the asserted amount or the validity of such Claims. Additionally, the Plan Administrator expressly reserves the right to amend, modify, or supplement the objections asserted herein and to file additional objections to the Improperly Classified Claim or any other claims that may be asserted against the Debtors' Estates.

20. Nothing contained herein or any actions taken pursuant to such relief is intended or should be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against a Debtor entity or such Debtor entity's estate; (b) a waiver of any party's right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Objection or any order granting the relief requested by this Objection; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) a waiver of the Plan Administrator's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

Separate Contested Matter

21. To the extent that a response is filed regarding any Improperly Classified Claim and the Plan Administrator is unable to resolve any such response, each such Improperly Classified Claim, and the Objection as it pertains to such Improperly Classified Claim, will constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 9014. Further, the Plan Administrator requests that any order entered by the Court regarding an objection or other reply asserted in response to this Objection be deemed a separate order with respect to each Improperly Classified Claim.

Notice

22. Notice of this Objection has been given to: (a) all parties on the Master Service List; and (b) holders of the Improperly Classified Claims in accordance with the Omnibus Objection Procedures. The Plan Administrator respectfully submits that such notice is sufficient and proper under the circumstances and that no other or further notice is required.

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, based upon the foregoing, the Plan Administrator respectfully request that the Court: (a) sustain this Objection; (b) enter the Proposed Order sustaining this Objection and providing that the Improperly Classified Claims shall be reclassified; and (c) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances.
